I, Victoria Marsh as chair of Mass Cultural Council’s Grants Committee, hereby call this meeting to order.

Please note that this meeting is an open meeting of a public body subject to the Massachusetts Open Meeting Law. A notice of this meeting together with the agenda was posted on Mass Cultural Council’s website 48 or more hours ago (excluding weekends and holidays).

This meeting shall be open and accessible to all members of the public except at such times when this body has voted to go into closed executive session under the Open Meeting Law.

Please note that this body has invited Mass Cultural Council’s senior staff and other staff members as requested to participate in today’s meeting.

Mass Cultural Council welcomes members of the public to attend its meetings. Under the Open Meeting Law, however, this is not a public hearing and public testimony will not be taken. Individuals may not address the meeting without permission of the chair.

Individuals asserting a violation of the Open Meeting Law may file a complaint with this body within 30 days or with the Attorney General’s office thereafter.

CONFLICTS LIST

Victoria then asked Dave Slatery to address the Conflict of Interest Procedures.

Dave explained that a copy of the Conflicts List had been provided in the meeting materials and that an updated list had been circulated today. Dave stated that any possible conflicts of interest are disclosed in the list and that any member who had so disclosed a conflict with respect to a particular organization or grantee would abstain from any vote or discussion regarding any Committee discussion or action relating to any Council grant or service to such organization or grantee. Victoria asked if any member who wished to add any organization to the list of possible conflicts contained in the Meeting Book.

It was noted that all the votes recommending the FY20 grant recommendations will note the various possible conflicts and abstentions of the Committee Members in attendance at this meeting.

Nina Falkow disclosed that she would abstain from any discussion or vote regarding the provision of a grant or other assistance to Boston Ballet and Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum.

Victoria Marsh disclosed that she would abstain from any discussion or vote regarding the provision of a grant or other assistance to Company One or WGBH.

Sandy Dunn disclosed that she would abstain from any discussion or vote regarding the provision of a grant or other assistance to Discover Central Massachusetts.

Barbara Schaffer Bacon disclosed that she would abstain from any discussion or vote regarding the provision of a grant or other assistance to the Arts Extension Service or New England Foundation for the Arts.

Jo-Ann Davis disclosed that she would abstain from any discussion or vote regarding the provision of a grant or other assistance to the The Care Center.

Kathleen Castro disclosed that she would abstain from any discussion or vote regarding the provision of a grant or other assistance to the Little Theater of Fall River or the New Bedford Festival Theater and the Fall River Coalition for Arts & Culture.

Karen Barry disclosed that she would abstain from any discussion or vote regarding the provision of a grant or other assistance to the Friendship Home.

Cecil Barron Jensen disclosed that she would abstain from any discussion or vote regarding the provision of a grant or other assistance to the Artists Association of Nantucket, The Nantucket Historical Association, Nantucket Cultural District or Nantucket Arts Council.

Victoria then asked Executive Director Anita Walker to make a presentation on the proposed FY20 Grants Recommendations. Anita indicated that immediately prior to this meeting, the Executive Committee had met and reviewed the proposed FY20 Budget and Spending Plan and voted to recommend it to the full Council for approval on August 27, subject to the Grants Committee’s review and recommendation of the FY20 Grants Recommendations. Anita explained the Grants Recommendations presentation and plan had been developed internally with staff and had been informed by the FY 20 Budget and Spending Plan and was today being presented as a draft to the Grants Committee. Anita then proceeded with a PowerPoint presentation, copies of which are available upon request.

At the end of the presentation, the Committee members had the following questions and comments.

Karen Barry was interested in knowing more about the geographic distributions of grants and grant outreach and indicated she would like to see pie-charts breaking it down and breaking out where applications are coming from. Victoria thought it would be a good idea to know more about the applicant pool. Barbara Schaffer Bacon would like to see how the grantmaking data plays out with the application data and was concerned about whether we were holding back enough of a reserve. Kathy Castro though members should be informed enough so as to act for ambassadors for the programs. Cecil Barron Jensen echoed this and would like to get arts and cultural organizations better informed and would like a visit in her community of Nantucket from Council staff.

The members then generally discussed the programs and the ability to review them when they were in an earlier developmental stage. Victoria suggested maybe adding an extra hour to the May Grants meeting to review ideas which may be developed into proposal in the next year’s spending plan.

Jen Lawless indicated she could help provide grant information to those who would like to see it. Karen indicated she would like to receive that.
FY20 GRANT RECOMMENDATIONS

After the conclusion of Anita’s presentation and the discussion related above, Victoria referred Section B of the Grants Committee Agenda, Parts 1 through 12, and called for the Committee to vote on whether to recommend the approval of the FY 20 grant recommendations contained in the Committee Meeting Book to the full Council. (Note that prior to the following votes occurring, Sandy Dunn left the meeting to attend to another matter.) Upon motion duly made and seconded, with the abstentions noted above, the Committee, by roll call vote, held

WHEREAS, the General Court of the Massachusetts State Legislature has appropriated a budget of $18,180,000 to the Mass Cultural Council for FY20;

Barbara expressed concern on how the grant to the JFK Library arose as an opportunity. Anita explained that it was opportunistic and that it fit in with our DEI work.

Karen asked if this budget addressed monies that would be available from gaming revenues. Anita indicated that it did not as no monies had been transferred to the Council yet pending a technical fix to the authorizing legislation. Anita indicated that even when those monies were available, there were dedicated to very specific mitigation programs as stated in the legislation and were not available generally for Mass Cultural Council operations.

There being no more business to come before the Council, Victoria as Chair adjoumed the meeting.

Re: FY20 Artist Fellowships (First Cycle)

Enclosed for your review and approval are recommendations for 19 fellows ($15,000 awards) and 16 finalists ($1,500 awards) from a total of 632 eligible applications for the FY20 Artist Fellowships panels in Drawing & Printmaking, Poetry, and Traditional Arts.

Included in this memo is a chart that shows the number of applications and recommended grants in FY20, with comparative totals for FY18 and FY16 (the last two years these disciplines were reviewed). Following this memo are lists of panelists, recommendations and rankings for each panel; and detailed biographical information on each of the recommended fellows and finalists.

Artist Fellowships
The Artist Fellowships Program provides direct, unrestricted support to artists in recognition of artistic excellence. Artist Fellowships have been awarded in some form by Mass Cultural Council almost continuously since FY75.

There are two Artist Fellowship deadlines per fiscal year, each with different disciplines. The first Artist Fellowships deadline for FY20 was in October 7, 2019 for the categories of Drawing & Printmaking, Poetry, and Traditional Arts. Panels met in December. These are the recommendations being presented for the January 7 Grants Committee meeting.

The second FY20 application deadline is January 27, 2020, for the disciplines of Choreography, Fiction/Creative Nonfiction, and Painting. Panels will meet in April, and recommendations from those panels will go to the May 2020 Grants Committee and Council meetings.
Review Process and Criteria
For all categories except Traditional Arts, the review criteria for Artist Fellowships are artistic quality and creative ability, based solely on the work submitted. Applications in the grant panels are reviewed anonymously and are discussed and scored by each panelist on a five-point scale.

In Traditional Arts, the review is not anonymous, and there are additional review criteria.

In most categories, there is also a first round of review before the panel meets, which narrows the field to the most competitive applications through a yes/no vote.

After applications are scored by the panels, a ranked list is given to the panel to make its final funding recommendations. In the case of a tie, panelists determine which of the tied applicants receive the award by discussing the work again and voting. The funding lists that follow this memo reflect the award rankings.

Re: Gaming Mitigation Program

On December 13, 2019, Governor Baker signed into Chapter 142 of Acts of 2019 which, in sections 3 and 4 thereof, provided a technical fix to the Casino Gaming Law (MGL Chapter 23K) which provides a workable mechanism for 2% of the Commonwealth’s gross gaming tax revenues to be transferred to a special statutory fund called the Massachusetts Cultural and Performing Arts Mitigation Trust Fund (herein, the “Fund”).

This Fund will be managed by Mass Cultural Council for administration and implementation of 1) a Gaming Mitigation Program ("to support not-for-profit and municipally-owned performing arts centers impacted as a result of the operation of gaming facilities") (75%) and 2) to a Mass Cultural Council program for organizational support (25%)\(^1\). The statute also permits Mass Cultural Council to use up to 7% of the Fund in any year for administrative and operational expenses. Immediately prior to this meeting, the Executive Committee met and considered approval of the Gaming Mitigation Program subject to the approval of the parameters of the program by the Grants Committee. This memo sets forth the parameters of the program.

Mass Cultural Council is prepared to launch the Gaming Mitigation Program as established by MGL Chapter 23K, Section 59 (2)(a). This program aims to mitigate a direct threat posed by casino entertainment and its pricing structures to the sustainability of non-profit performing arts centers in Massachusetts by providing capital to preserve their ability to compete in a new, unbalanced marketplace.

The program was developed over a two-year period with the input of the affected performing arts centers and included:

\(^1\) More information about this program pursuant to which funds would be dedicated to a new program under the CultureRx initiative to support the social prescription of cultural experiences for residents of the Commonwealth will be presented for approval at the March 3 Grants Committee meeting.
• Surveys
• Three focus group meetings
• A kaizen that included representatives from five organizations
• Numerous conversations with stakeholders by phone and email
• 8-month period of feedback on posted draft guidelines

We are seeking approval of the process by which staff will allocate the funds to be granted under the program. Under the proposed process, applicants must meet a set of eligibility requirements, and then funding would be determined primarily by a formula that considers two factors equally:

1. The percent of performances impacted - the total number of an applicant’s eligible performances divided by the total number of performances. (“Eligible” would mean performances that are available to the general public and feature touring arts show/artists.)

2. Total fees paid to touring shows or artists for the eligible performances.

The formula would allocate more funds to performing arts centers that have a higher percent of impacted performances and that spend more money on touring shows or artists because organizations whose business model relies more heavily on these types of shows/artists will be the most impacted by competition with casinos.

Not all eligible grantees will necessarily receive funding. The maximum grant amount and the minimum grant size needed to qualify for funding will be determined by the Executive Director with input from staff after the applications are all submitted. Any caps or minimums that are set will be determined depending on the amount of funding available, the number of applicants to the pool, and the need to target funding to those most directly impacted by the operation of resort style casinos. Because this is the first time the Council will run the formula, we need the application data in hand to make these kinds of determinations.

For information and illustrative purposes is a copy of guidelines developed by staff to implement the program described above. (Please note that staff would retain the ability to modify the guidelines consistent with the parameters described in this memo which is consistent with how guidelines are treated in each of the other Mass Cultural Council grant programs).

Staff hereby requests the Grants Committee to recommend approval by the full Council of the Gaming Mitigation Program described pursuant to the resolution provided to this meeting.
DRAFT GUIDELINES- GAMING MITIGATION PROGRAM

Program Description

The Gaming Mitigation Program, established by MGL Section 59 chapter 23K, aims to mitigate a direct threat to the sustainability of non-profit performing arts centers in Massachusetts by providing capital to preserve their ability to compete in a new, unbalanced marketplace.

This is important because performing arts centers:

- Are economic engines for communities
- Ensure access to the arts across the Commonwealth
- Are centers of community gathering and place making
- Provide young people creative learning opportunities

Grants will be awarded to using a formula as the primary factor. However not all eligible grantees will receive funding. The maximum grant amount and the minimum grant size needed to qualify for funding will be determined after the applications are submitted. Any caps or minimums that are set will be determined depending on the amount of funding available, the number of applicants to the pool, and the need to target funding to those most directly impacted by the operation of resort style casinos. Because this is the first time the agency will run the formula, we cannot tell applicants if they will be funded or what level they might be funded at.

Eligibility

To be eligible, applicants must meet all three the following characteristics described in depth below:

1. Applicants must be a performing arts center:
   - Performing arts centers are defined as organizations that commit 50% or more of their operating expenses to the performing arts.
   - Performing arts are types of art that are presented live for an audience; examples include dance, music, opera, musical theater, theater, folk/traditional dance and/or music.

2. Applicants must be non-profit OR municipally owned:
   - Non-profit performing arts centers include fully cultural performing art centers and cultural affiliates as defined below that meet the relevant requirements for each:
     - Fully cultural non-profit performing arts center: A legally recognized 501(c)3 performing art center in good standing in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. This includes non-profit performing arts centers managed by separate non-profit managing organizations.

- Cultural affiliate performing arts center: A semi-independent performing art center that operates under a non-cultural parent organization, such as a university or social service organization. This type of performing art center must meet additional eligibility requirements defined below.

- Detailed eligibility requirements for all non-profit performing arts centers: To be eligible all non-profit performing arts centers applying must:
  - Have a 501(c)3 designation with the Internal Revenue Service which is currently active and has not been revoked.
  - Complete all required filings as a public charity with the Massachusetts Attorney General’s Office.
  - Complete all Annual Report filings as a nonprofit corporation with the Massachusetts Secretary of the Commonwealth.
  - In addition, any organization incorporated outside of Massachusetts must have a current certificate of registration from the Secretary of the Commonwealth to operate as foreign corporation within the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.
  - An organization managing a non-profit performing arts center must have a long term (at least 5 years) contract, lease, or deed articulating their management responsibilities.

- Detailed requirements for cultural affiliate performing arts centers: In addition to the above eligibility requirements of all non-profit performing arts centers, to be eligible performing arts centers that are cultural affiliates must also
  - Manage their own budget.
  - Have at least one full-time (min. 30 hours per week) compensated administrative staff position dedicated solely to operation of the performing art center.
  - Have its own advisory board that meets regularly to discuss policy, strategic direction, and resource development plans to ensure long-term sustainability.

- Municipally owned performing art centers include:
  - Municipally owned performing arts centers managed by the municipality itself.
  - Municipally owned performing arts centers managed by an eligible managing organization:
    - The managing organization must have a long term (at least 5 years) contract, lease, or deed articulating their management responsibilities.
    - Eligible managing organizations include:
      - A legally recognized 501(c)3 non-profit
      - A for-profit managing company
    - Ineligible managing organizations include:
- Resort-style or slot parlor casinos
- For profit managing companies that operate under the direction of resort-style or slot parlor casinos

3. Applicants must present touring shows or artists: Touring shows or artists are shows or artists that appear on Pollstar or another similar touring performing arts roster.

Funding

Not all eligible applicants are guaranteed funding. Funding decisions are made primarily through a formula that considers the following factors, which have equal weight:

1. Percent of Performances Impacted

   The percent of performance impacted is the Total number of eligible performances divided by the Total number of performances.

   For example, if a performing arts center presents 100 performances a year and 30 of them are eligible performances, then 30% of the performing arts center’s performances would be considered impacted because the eligible performances are those that compete most directly with casinos. The formula allocates more funds to those performing arts centers that have a higher percent of impacted performances.

2. Total fees paid to touring shows or artists for the eligible performances.

   The formula allocates more funds to those performing arts centers that spend more money on touring shows or artists because organizations whose business model relies more heavily on these types of shows/artists will be the most impacted by competition with casinos.

Definitions related to funding:

Total Performances: To calculate the total number of performances the organization should count the number of performances that are:

- Live presentations of performing arts for an audience: For organizations that present multidisciplinary events, they do not have to count every gallery opening, yoga workshop, and craft fair. The focus is on the number of performing arts events for live audiences.
Presented by the organization or presented by a producer renting the organization’s venue

Total Eligible Performances: To calculate the total number of eligible performances the organization should review the list of Total Performances already identified and should count the number of performances that are:

- Available to the general public by free or paid admissions

  AND

- Feature touring arts show/artists.

Performances only open to university students, K-12 school groups, or other limited audiences are not considered open to the general public.

Total Fees Paid to Touring Shows or Artists: To calculate the total fees paid to touring shows or artists, review the list of Total Eligible Performances already identified and calculate the sum of all the actual cash expenses paid by the organization to touring shows or artists for the eligible performances. Can include:

- Payments to the show/artist including bonuses and percentages
- Housing costs for the touring show/artist
- Travel costs for the show/artist

Fees cannot include in-kind figures. Fees cannot include any show or artist fees that were not included in the Total Eligible Performances.

However, if a contract package/agreement with a touring show or artists includes both eligible and ineligible performances (such as matinees for school groups) the applicant can include the full amount they paid the touring show/artist for all the performances in the Total Fees Paid to Touring Shows or Artists. If a touring show or artists contract package/agreement only included ineligible performances, than none of the fees paid to that artist can be included in the Total Fees Paid to Touring Shows Artists.

Grant Amounts and Use of Funds

The maximum grant amount and the minimum grant size needed to qualify for funding will be determined after the applications are submitted. Any caps or minimums that are set will be determined depending on the amount of funding available, the number of applicants to the pool, and the need to target funding to those most directly impacted by the operation of resort style casinos. Not all eligible applicants are guaranteed funding.

Grant funds must be spent on fees paid to touring shows or artists.
If the grantee is a Non-profit Performing Arts Center:
The grant will be made to the Performing Arts Center with the following exceptions:

- In the case of fully cultural non-profit performing arts centers with a non-profit managing entity, the payment will be made to the organization responsible for paying the touring shows/artists, which is typically the managing entity.
- In the case of cultural affiliate performing arts centers, the payment can be made to the non-cultural parent organization, but the funds must be used to subsidize fees paid to touring shows or artists at the performing arts center.

If the grantee is a Municipally Owned Performing Arts Center:
The grant will be made to the municipality that owns the performing arts center with the requirement that the funds must be used to subsidize fees paid to touring shows or artists at the municipally owned performing arts center.

Application
At the time of application, the applicant will be asked to provide the following information. The information should be from the applicant’s most recently completed fiscal year. Applicants that have audits should only submit information from the completed audit. Used to confirm eligibility and to run formula:

2. Total cash operating expenses associated with performing arts
3. Attachment: Budget information showing how the applicant calculated amount spent on performing arts.

12. Total ticket revenue from performances by eligible shows/artists
13. Total # free tickets for performances by eligible shows/artists
14. Total # paid tickets for performances by eligible shows/artists
15. What shows/artists did you lose to casinos or could not afford because of competition with casinos?

Application Review
Applications are first reviewed by staff to confirm eligibility:

- Ineligible applicants are notified
- Eligible applicants stay in pool

Eligible applications are then reviewed by staff to confirm formula components are correct:

- Staff will contact applicants that need to correct or edit their submission if any problems are discovered. The applicant will be given a deadline to resubmit the corrected application. If the applicant fails to do so, the applicant will not be moved forward.
- Applications without issue and corrected applications will then be moved into formula consideration

The formula is applied to the applications remaining in the pool and awards and/or funding amounts are finalized by Mass Cultural Council staff.

Grant Requirements

The Mass Cultural Council may apply a contract hold, penalty, or restriction if the grantee is not in compliance with necessary grant requirements. Grantees that do not meet annual requirements may not be eligible in subsequent grant years. Grant requirements include:

- Grantees must submit a Final Report.
- Acknowledgement of Funding: Grant recipients are required to credit the Mass Cultural Council for funding. Refer to your Contract Package or the online Credit and Publicity Kit for more details.
- Accessibility: The Mass Cultural Council and its grantees are contractually committed to abide by state and federal regulations which bar discrimination on the basis of race, gender, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, disability, age, gender identity, or sexual orientation, and which require accessibility for persons with disabilities. The Mass Cultural Council’s grantees sign a contract certifying that they will comply with ADA and Section 504. The Mass Cultural Council aims to help grantees understand their obligations and recognize the opportunities that increasing access can provide for both the public and the grantee. Resources and additional information about accessibility are available on the Mass Cultural Council's website.

Additionally, the MCC has the right to withhold, reduce, discontinue funding, or apply restrictions to the use of grant funds if a grantee:

- Intentionally misrepresents its finances, programming, or other eligibility requirements
- Does not notify the MCC of significant organizational changes
- Cannot carry out stated mission
- Demonstrates inadequate financial management and oversight.

In cases where a grantee experiences serious organizational capacity issues, the MCC will attempt to work with that organization to address the challenge.

Reconsideration Policy

An applicant may request reconsideration of a Mass Cultural Council decision if the applicant can demonstrate that the Mass Cultural Council did not follow published guidelines and procedures. Dissatisfaction with the denial of an award or the award amount does not constitute grounds for reconsideration. A written request must be sent to the Mass Cultural Council's Executive Director within 30 days of the date of notification of the decision. Such requests will be reviewed by the Mass Cultural Council Grants Committee and the Council.

Re: CIP Projects Program discussion with Grants Committee

As we discussed, I have been looking at the Projects Grant program, and I have some concerns and questions about the program for FY21 grants, and we will be discussing this at Tuesday’s Grants Committee meeting.

Background:

Projects grants are one-year grants for specific, eligible, public programming to provide access, excellence, diversity, or education in the arts, humanities, or sciences, and are not for general operating support.

A few details about this year’s applicants and grantees

- Applications were due on May 1, 2019. Panelists reviewed the applications, and grant announcements were made following Council approval in late August 2019.
- We received 222 applications, representing a wide range of artistic, cultural, and science disciplines. Organization budgets ranged from $10,000 to $50 million.
- 121 Projects (54% of the applicants) were recommended for funding. This included organizations from all over the state, and a very wide range of organization and project budget size.

The challenge:

The program has grown very quickly – reflecting the need and desire for grant support for programming. The current program feels unfocused and unwieldy, making the process difficult for applicants and review panelists.

In preparation for Tuesday’s meeting, I have attached an example of the current application, and some thoughts for the next generation of Projects grants.

Project Overview

Project Name
The Young Critics Program

Provide a brief project description including location of project by COMPLETING THIS SENTENCE:
This application is for a project......
This application is for a project to identify, inspire and train the next generation of diverse theater critics in the Greater Boston Area.

Provide a complete description of the proposed project, including the project's goals and objectives
The Front Porch Arts Collective and WBUR's The ARTery are teaming up to diversify theatre criticism in Boston. The Young Critics Program is designed to identify, train and mentor a diverse pool of aspiring theatre critics. The program provides rigorous and immersive workshops led by industry professionals to teach the art of theatre criticism. To eliminate economic barriers, this program is free to all who are accepted and participants will be provided a stipend. The cohort will attend 2 shows over the course of the program and write reviews of those shows. Critics will come together for peer review as well as mentor review. Upon completion of the program, the Porch will facilitate writing opportunities with HowlRound, StageSource, the Independent Reviewers of New England (IRNE), the Boston Theatre Critics Association (presenters of the Elliot Norton Award) and other publications and critics organizations to help them diversify their writing staffs and bring a wider perspective to the writers of arts criticism in Boston.

How does this project relate to your mission and other core programming? (Please make it clear that you have other programming, as this relates to your project eligibility.)
The Front Porch Arts Collective (The Porch) has a two fold approach to our mission of 'advancing racial equity in Boston through theatre.' The first is to create a theatrical home where plays that explore Black Culture can be experienced all season long. A home in which we strive to not only increase the representation of Black people on our stages, but also in the audience, backstage, on staff and in the boardroom. Secondly, we work to build programs that will increase diversity across the larger theatrical landscape. Our mentorship programs aim to increase the number of directors, designers, and stage managers of color as Boston is woefully lacking in these areas. The Young Critics Program is designed to address the need for increased diversity in the Boston theatre critics community where 100% of the Boston Theatre Critics Association and approx. 95% of the Independent Reviewers of New England are Caucasian, with the majority being above the age of 55.

How does this project benefit your community (participants or target audiences). How have you assessed community need or interest for a project of this type? What are the demographics and number of people you plan to serve, if applicable?
As theatre companies have evolved to include more diverse stories being told on their stages, there has been a national cry for more theatre critics who represent the cultures being portrayed onstage. One of the more infamous cases happened two years ago in Chicago when Steppenwolf Theatre Company released a statement that Chicago Sun-Times critic Hedy Weiss’ “critical contribution...revealed a deep-seated bigotry and a painful lack of understanding of this country’s historic racism” in response to Weiss’ review of their play “Pass Over” by Antoinette Nwandu (a play which will be in The Porch’s next season). An ad-hoc group of Chicago theater artists said Weiss’ reviews have historically demonstrated “racism, homophobia, and body shaming.” This year several Boston area theatre community members expressed their continuous disappointment with the nominations and winners of the IRNE’s and Elliot Norton Awards. An official letter sent to local theatre critics specifically pointed out the lack of racial and gender diversity in this year’s nominations. These nominations are meant to highlight and show appreciation to the significant talent present in Boston theaters. We believe the Young Critics Program can be the catalyst to creating more opportunities for theaters and artists that highlight work of diverse backgrounds to be acknowledged and recognized. As theatre is such a finite artform, the power of critics in the community holds much weight. After a show closes, one of the only records of the production is the reviews it received. We continue to have critics who do not look like or understand the artists and experiences seen onstage, therefore the work is often not given the same value. We believe that the Young Critics Program will cultivate and train a generation of young and diverse critics to advocate and support the diversity that is occurring on the theatrical stage.

Provide a description of the racial, economic and age demographics of the geographic area where this project will take place. This could be a neighborhood, a city or town, a region, or other. You can typically find this information on your city website or other internet resources. www.census.gov/quickfacts can be an excellent resource.

Boston is a majority “minority” city (44.9% of the city’s population are white non-hispanic) with the largest ‘minority’ group identifying as Black or African American (25.3%). Despite these statistics theatrical leadership and criticism remains overwhelmingly Caucasian. The Porch is building programs that seek to make the theatrical landscape more reflective of the diversity of the city. The Young Critics Program works with colleges, community groups and other institutions to identify young, mostly POC individuals with a passion for theatre and interest in learning the skills of criticism. The ultimate desire is that upon completion of this program, they join a Boston area critics association.

Describe your plans to reach diverse communities, in the context of the information that you have provided above. These could be plans to reach ethnically and economically diverse populations, rural, elderly, veterans, and people with disabilities. Describe past efforts and successes if they are relevant to this application.

All of The Porch’s programs serve diverse communities. Company leadership is connected to department chairs and professors of theatre departments at most of the area universities. We tapped into this network for the pilot program and was able to assemble a cohort of college students and recent graduates of various racial and cultural backgrounds. We will once again access this network, asking for recommendations of current students or recent graduates who would be interested in this program. Though the program will be open to everyone, individuals of color will be strongly encouraged to apply.

Explain how you determined your budget, for example: how you calculate artist or administrator compensation, admissions or tuition revenues, other expenses. Also, if your organization has had a deficit in past years, explain how that affects your ability to execute this project successfully.

The project budget is based on costs incurred from the pilot Young Critics Program which came to completion on April 20, 2019. The Porch is projected to end the current Fiscal year with nearly $6,000 in earned revenue. $2,750 is earmarked for this program, in addition to $400 from our projected individual donations.

Provide details on how you plan to execute and evaluate this project: describe your plans to reach your target audiences and participants. Provide a detailed timeline (include dates if possible): describe your criteria and plans to evaluate the success of the project.

In late September, 2019 our education team will reach out to our network of theatre department chairs and professors for recommendations of current students or recent graduates who would be interested in this program. Applications will be due by October 15th with acceptance letters going out no later than November 1st. The program is currently scheduled for the weekend of Dec 6, 2019. Workshops will be held Friday, Saturday and Sunday afternoons with participants going to the theatre Friday and Saturday evenings. The final workshop will be January 18, 2020 after reviews have been submitted. The evaluation process will be twofold: 1) Upon completion participants will be asked to fill out an evaluation to identify the strengths and weaknesses of the program; 2) Reviews generated by program participants will be evaluated by editors and, if deemed worthy, chosen for publication. Our hope is that at least two reviews are published from the group.

Who are the key participants involved in creating and implementing this project, and what are their qualifications? For example, staff, artists, scholars, educators, consultants, etc.

Alisa Solomon is the director of the Arts & Culture concentration at the Columbia Journalism School teaching, among other things, Criticism Workshop. She began her journalism career in the early 1980s as a theater critic at the Village Voice and, while continuing in that role in her 21 years on staff at the Voice, also covered such areas as U.S. immigration policy, LGBTQ issues, the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, electoral politics, and women's sports. She contributes regularly to The Nation, covering live performance and scripted TV. Maria Garcia is the senior editor of The ARTery, WBUR's Arts and Culture Team. She oversees WBUR's arts coverage for the radio and the web. Maria earned a Master of Arts in journalism, with a focus on arts and culture reporting from Columbia Journalism School. Before that, Maria focused on political and investigative reporting along the U.S. - Mexico border. After a decade of political reporting, Maria decided to pursue another long-standing passion: arts journalism. She is interested in arts reporting in New England's underrepresented areas, as well as investigative stories about Boston's legacy arts institutions. Alisa and Maria will lead workshops on the art of criticism. Program facilitator Pascale Florestal is a Director, Educator and Administrator in Boston. She has taught with The Huntington Theatre Company, Company One, Boch Center for Performing Arts and The Eugene O'Neill Center.
