Photos for Advocacy

It's important for Mass Cultural Council to be able to showcase grantees work on its website, social media, and through other communications channels so that we can continue to amplify the vital work of the sector to successfully advocate for funding. Please consider uploading up to 2 images from your organization below for our digital image library. Alternatively, you could provide a link to your organization's drop box, or equivalent file-sharing space, for us to directly access images you regularly make available to funders, press, etc.)

By uploading the photographs you give the Mass Cultural Council permission to make use of the image for promotional purposes. You will retain all copyright and ownership and we will properly credit all images. It is your responsibility to ensure that you have the photographer and/or subject's permission to share this photograph with us.

To ensure best quality, don't be shy to share larger image files.
