3. Teachers as Learners & Learners as Teachers
Icebreaker

Introductions

1. Rename yourself: Make sure you include name, organization and pronouns

2. In the chat, please share: One thing you did in the past year that you are proud of.
“When you are kind to yourself. When you know you have your own back....it gives you the capacity and power to explore and take risks so that we can take values connected steps.”

-Dr. Susan David, “On the Dangers of Toxic Positivity”
Defining Values

Values are important and lasting beliefs or ideas. They serve as broad guidelines for our behavior and activities in all situations.
Personal Values

Choose your three most important values

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>· Inner Peace</th>
<th>· Social Change</th>
<th>· Creative Expression</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>· Change</td>
<td>· Continuity</td>
<td>· Status</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>· Freedom</td>
<td>· Community</td>
<td>· Tradition</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>· Good Health</td>
<td>· Religion</td>
<td>· Individual Achievement</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>· Friendship</td>
<td>· Respect</td>
<td>· Financial Security</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>· Peace &amp; Justice</td>
<td>· Wisdom</td>
<td>· Being part of a Family</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>· Harmony</td>
<td>· Independence</td>
<td>· Heritage</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Other</td>
<td>Other</td>
<td>· Personal Growth</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Reflect on Values

1. Share your top 3 personal values in the chat

2. Think about:
   a. How did your personal values inspire you to begin your work? How do they help you continue your work?
   b. How does self-care connect to your values?
Self-Care Strategic Planning - The Present

1. Find a piece of paper and fold it in thirds
2. Write your values across the top
3. On the far left side, make a list of your PRESENT assets and challenges

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>List your values at the top</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>List your assets &amp; challenges on the left</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Thursday, March 25, 2021
Self-Care Strategic Planning - The Future

1. On the far right side list 3-4 goals for your FUTURE
   - Three years from now, if you were living your values, leveraging your assets and addressing your challenges - How would you be? What would you be doing?
   - Start each sentence with, “I AM...”

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>List your values at the top</th>
<th>List your assets &amp; challenges on the left</th>
<th>List your goals on the right:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>I AM...</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>I AM...</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>I AM...</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Thursday, March 25, 2021
In Small Groups

1. Each person share their 3-4 goals

2. Discuss:

   a. Do your goals reflect all of your values?

   b. How does coming up with personal goals in the context of self-care influence your thinking?

Self-Care Strategic Planning Frameworks

Some ideas for your TIME MACHINE
Types of Self-Care:

- Self Soothing: Emergency/Immediate responses to stress that “complete the cycle.”
- Community Care: Ongoing social practices that build interdependence as nourishment.
- Self Care: Ongoing practices that create well-being.
- Structural Care: Building/rebuilding systems that ensure that care is accessible to all.

Self Soothing

Emergency/immediate responses that “complete the cycle.”

Examples:

- Bubble Bath
- Getting into nature
- Fancy Beverages
- Breathing
- Positive Social Interaction (20 sec hug!)
- Laughter
- Affection
- A big Ol’ cry
- Exercise
- Creative Expression

“Just because you have dealt with the stressor, doesn’t mean you have dealt with the stress itself.”

-Emily & Amelia Nagoski, “Completing the Stress Cycle”
Self Care

Ongoing practices that create well-being

Examples:

- Going to therapy
- Eating well for your body
- Meditating/yoga
- Taking ownership of your finances
- Getting medical care
- Massage
- Saying YES and NO when you really mean it
- Tending to a plant or animal
- Setting and keeping boundaries
- Getting medical care
- Exercise
- Creative practice

“Sometimes, when you are very gritty, you can convince yourself that all your tactics are appropriate.”

-Sara Lewis, talking to Brene Brown, Dare to Lead podcast
Community Care

Ongoing social practices that build interdependence as nourishment

Examples:

- Childcare cooperatives
- Education collectives
- Dignified & supportive healthcare orgs
- Worker-owned coops
- Intimate relationships
- Credit unions
- Mutual aid
- Book groups
- Group art making
- Freecycle & buy nothing groups

“Connection nourishes us in a literal, physiological way, regulating our heart rates, and respiration rates, influencing the emotional activation in our brains, shifting our immune response to injuries and wounds, changing our exposure to stressors and modulating our stress response.”

-Emily & Amelia Nagoski, “Completing the Stress Cycle”
Structural Care

Building/rebuilding systems that ensure that care is accessible to all.

Examples:

- Comprehensive universal health care
- Living wage
- Child & elder care for all
- Paid family leave
- Racial equity & justice
- Gender & sexuality liberation
- Educational justice

“When residents, young people, or community groups act to improve the quality of life for the group as a whole, the process of movement towards the shared goal engenders existential outcomes such as purpose, imagination, meaning, and faith.”

-Shawn Ginwright, Hope and Healing in Urban Education
Session 1
Mindfulness Techniques
(Dr. Charmain Jackman)

- Guided imagery
- Put a picture of your favorite place near where you work
- “5 Things” using your 5 senses
- Body scan
- 10 ways to take a break
- ……and others
What is in YOUR time machine?

What are the types of things you will do to promote the outcomes MOST important to you?
Self-Care Strategic Planning - Time Machine

1. In the middle column, list the strategies you will use to reach your goals
   - Think about how you will tend to both your internal self-care and your external community care

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>List your values at the top</th>
<th>List your assets &amp; challenges on the left</th>
<th>List your strategies in the middle</th>
<th>List your goals on the right:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>I AM…</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>I AM…</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>I AM…</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Self-Care Strategic Planning - Implementation

- Choose one of your strategies
- As you look at each part of your day: Where are there opportunities to implement that strategy?
- Choose a time of day and an action you will take.

Thursday, March 25, 2021
In Small Groups

1. Each person share their implementation plan

2. Discuss:
   a. Are there any missed opportunities?
   b. What are your barriers to implementing this plan?
   c. Who do you need to enlist to put this plan into action?
Who are your self-care allies?
What will you ask them to help you with?
Share your ideas in the chat!
Communication & Self-Care

- Let others know clearly where your boundaries are
- Disengage from negative conversations and/or people
- Ask for help when you need it and offer help to others
- Request regular meetings with your supervisor
- Ask for your time off in advance and TAKE IT
- Communicate your needs proactively
- Practice self-compassion
